QUICK FACTS

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEW POLICY

All interview requests must be made through Kyle Stafford (kstafford@athletics.tamu.edu), with at least a 24-hour notice. On game days, interviews will be conducted approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game and will be coordinated by the Media Relations department.

CREDENTIALS

Media and photo credentials should be requested at least two days prior to game day by contacting Kyle Stafford at kstafford@athletics.tamu.edu. Media seating is limited, so credentials will be issued according to Texas A&M and the SEC credential guidelines, which can be found at 12thMan.com/media. Admittance to media areas is limited to working media only. No children or other non-media members will be admitted to the working media areas.

PHOTO WELLS

Photo wells are located down the first and third base lines at Blue Bell Park. Space is extremely limited in these areas and are first come, first serve. Photographers must not cross the yellow line in the wells during game action and are not allowed on the playing surface. Pre and postgame, photographers are allowed to step on to the warning track but are not allowed to stand in front of the Texas A&M dugout.

12THMAN.COM

Media can obtain more information on Texas A&M Baseball on 12thMan.com, the official website of Texas A&M athletics. Rosters, schedules, bios, game notes, statistics, box scores, postgame audio files and much more are available online.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is extremely limited and will be made avaliable on a first-come, first-serve basis. Parking will be available by ARRANGING IN ADVANCE ONLY in Lot 100g, which is located on the southeast corner of Reed Arena (arena lot closest to Blue Bell Park). It is wise to arrive as early as possible to ensure obtaining a parking space. You must contact the Media Relations office in advance to obtain parking passes and avoid being charged to park.

GAMEDAY MEDIA SERVICES

Updated game notes and statistics will be available prior to each game. Internet access is available in the Blue Bell Park press box.

RADIO

Outlets wishing to broadcast games at Blue Bell Park should contact the Media Relations office no later than one week prior to gameday.

PHOTO/VIDEO

Contact Kyle Stafford (kstafford@athletics.tamu.edu) to request high-resolution digital images or video of Texas A&M's coaches and players.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Ben Beaty (bbeaty@sec.org), Assistant Director of Communications, will serve as the media contact for SEC baseball. The SEC office address is 2201 Richard Arrington Boulevard North, Birmingham, AL 35203. The telephone number is (205) 458-3000. The SEC website is www.SECSports.com.

BLUE BELL PARK

The $24 million Olsen Field at Blue Bell Park opened in February 2012 and gave the Texas A&M Baseball program one of the country's crown jewels of collegiate stadiums to call home.

The project, spearheaded by a $7 million pledge from Blue Bell Creameries in nearby Brenham, Texas, allowed the university to transform Olsen Field--which opened in 1978--into a first-class facility that showcases the long-standing tradition of the A&M athletics program.

Blue Bell Park includes traditional and dugout suites and added accommodation seats for fans with special needs. In addition, a new club lounge, additional concessions and restrooms, as well as a children's playground, are part of the facilities.

Players have access to a weight room, hydrotherapy room, training room, bullpens, locker rooms and team lounge. Coaches also have new offices and a separate locker room.

Fans are closer to the action than ever before because designers decreased the distance between home plate and the first seating row. Lawn seating were added along the first- and third-base lines, allowing fans to watch the game from these elevated grassy knolls or take the traditional route of chair seating.

The design team studied and incorporated the rich history not only of Texas A&M but also the history of Aggie baseball.

In addition to its distinct architectural appeal, the stadium includes features that recruits will not be able to ignore.

BLUE BELL PARK ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Olsen Field was dedicated on March 21, 1978, and reigned for over 30 years as one of college baseball's top venue. Following the 2011 season, the stadium underwent a $24 million dollar renovation to ensure it remained as the country's top collegiate stadium.

MICHAEL EARLEY

HEAD COACH
INDIANA '10
ANDERSON '15

1ST SEASON
AT TEXAS A&M

Michael Earley, former Texas A&M hitting coach, has been named the 21st head baseball coach at Texas A&M by Director of Athletics Trev Alberts.

"I am happy to announce that Michael Earley has been hired as our new Aggie baseball head coach," Director of Athletics Trev Alberts said. "Michael is a very talented coach and recruiter, but what stood out to me was his character and the relationships he has built with his current and former players. During our interview process he was really impressive. I think it helps that he knows our current roster, which finished second in the country, and he also knows Aggieland and the 12th Man. I am excited about the future of Aggie baseball. Please help me welcome home Michael and his family back to Aggieland."

"My family and I couldn't be more excited for this opportunity," said Earley. "Thank you, General Welsh and Trev Alberts for putting your trust in me. Being a part of this University and this program are a dream come true. I will not let you down. See you in Omaha!"

Earley served as the hitting coach for the Aggies for the past three seasons, helping the squad to two College World Series appearances and a national runner-up finish in 2024. In his tenure, Earley developed Texas A&M into one of the most powerful and potent offenses in the SEC. In 2024, the Maroon & White set program records for home runs with 136 and walks with a nation-leading 422.

In his three seasons, the Aggies have belted 306 homers, logged 704 extra-base hits and drawn 1,178 walks.

"Michael Earley is talented, hard-working, and absolutely committed to Aggie baseball," President Mark A. Welsh III said. "Not a bad combination when you consider the huge support he has from his players. Add in the street cred he enjoys across collegiate baseball as a position coach, hitting coach and recruiter, and you realize we now have a budding superstar leading Aggie baseball. I'd like to thank Trev Alberts for the hard work leading to this hire. I'd also like to thank our incredible Aggie baseball players for contributing to this search in such a respectful and impactful way. Finally, welcome home Coach Earley. We're all behind you."

Under Earley's guidance in 2024, the trio of Braden Montgomery, Gavin Grahovac and Jace LaViolette became the first group of teammates in program history to each surpass 20 home runs in a single season. LaViolette also became the first player in Texas A&M history to record back-to-back seasons with 20 or more homers.

The Aggies also had four offensive standouts earn All-America honors under Earley's teachings in 2024, including Grahovac, LaViolette, Montgomery and Jackson Appel. Grahovac also set a new Texas A&M freshman record for homers with 23, surpassing fellow team LaViolette, who set the previous mark in 2023.

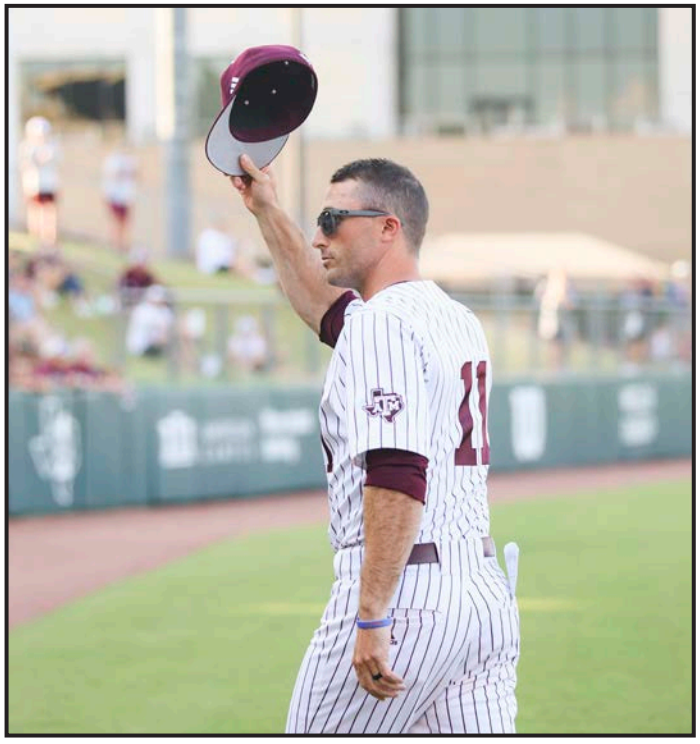
During his tenure with the Maroon & White, five position players have been drafted with more expected to be taken in the 2024 MLB Draft.

In 2023 he helped direct LaViolette to a breakout freshman campaign with the lefty leading the team with 63 RBI and 18 stolen bases on his way to multiple freshman All-America honors. LaViolette, along with the rest of the Aggie offense, was even better in SEC play where they finished second in runs scored (208) and third in both on-base percentage (.391) and RBI (190) within the league.

In 2022, his first year in Aggieland, the Aggies ranked second in the SEC in batting average (.289) and third in on-base percentage (.398). In the 30-game league schedule, the Aggies topped the SEC in batting average (.290), runs (233), RBI (215) and on-base percentage (.398). The Maroon & White's 2022 slash of .289/.398/.469 was a stark upgrade from 2021's .260/.363/.417. Along the way, Earley molded Dylan Rock into an All-America outfielder and MLB eighth-round draft pick.

Prior to Texas A&M, Earley spent five seasons at Arizona State, including four as the hitting coach on Tracy Smith's staff where he built a reputation for developing hitters with his most notable work being the rise of Spencer Torkelson to the No. 1 overall draft pick in the 2020 MLB Draft. Undrafted out of high school, Torkelson was selected by the Detroit Tigers. He was the first third baseman to be selected first overall since Pat Burrell in 1998 and just the fifth third baseman to be selected first overall in MLB Draft history. It marked the first time a college position player went from being undrafted out of high school to the No. 1 overall pick since Nebraska outfielder Darin Erstad in 1995.

"I would not be where I am at today without Coach Earley," Torkelson said. "He is the definition of a winner. His hard work and dedication to the game of baseball is contagious."



COACHING STAFF

In the 2020 MLB Draft, four of Earley's hitters were selected as Arizona State was the only school in the country to boast five players chosen in the shortened, five-round draft. The list included Torkelson, Alika Williams (37th overall – Tampa Bay Rays), Trevor Hauver (99th overall – New York Yankees) and Gage Workman (102nd overall – Detroit Tigers).

Under Earley's guidance, Hunter Bishop and Torkelson earned unanimous All-America recognition in 2019, forming one of the most potent offensive duos in college baseball over the last decade. The pair were semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy.

Arizona State led the nation in home runs during the 2019 regular season, clubbing 92 dingers. The Sun Devils were the NCAA statistical champion in home runs per game, sporting a 1.65 clip. Arizona State finished the 2019 campaign with 94 homers, easily eclipsing the Pac-12 record for the BBCOR era, surpassing Oregon State's 67 in 2018. The Sun Devils were the first Power 5 school in the BBCOR era to have multiple payers hit the 20-HR mark with 23 by Torkelson and 22 by Bishop. The Sun Devils batted .310 in 2019, to rank 10th in the nation. They also ranked 17th in the nation in on-base percentage (.398).

Earley made an immediate impact in Tempe. Arizona State improved in every offensive statistical category from 2017-18. In 2018, the team clubbed 50 home runs after hitting 38 in 2017. The team's overall batting average also climbed 20 points to .290, second in the Pac-12 behind 2018 NCAA champion Oregon State. In regular-season action, the Sun Devils ranked second in slugging percentage (.446), hits (549), batting average (.290) and total bases (843).

Earley was an All-Big Ten performer at Indiana University. In 2010, he batted .352 with 13 home runs and was the only player in the conference to rack up double-digits in home runs and stolen bases. He was selected by the Chicago White Sox in the 29th round of the 2010 MLB Draft. He played six seasons in the White Sox organization, reaching the Triple-A level with the Charlotte Knights. He wrapped up his professional career with the Southern Illinois Miners in the independent Frontier League in 2015. He was selected to four All-Star teams during his pro career and was named to the Southern Illinois All-Decade Team.

Earley is married to his wife, Lisa, and together they have a son, Marshall, and two daughters, Mia and Madison.

1ST SEASON

Jason Kelly, the 2018 D1Baseball.com National Assistant Coach of the Year, enters his first season in Aggieland as the associate head coach and pitching coach.

Kelly brings over 20 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level to Bryan-College Station with his most recent stop being at Washington, where he served as the head coach. In his first season at the helm, the Huskies defied expectations and finished third in the Pac-12 standings with a 17-12 mark after being selected to seventh in the preseason poll. The 2023 team finished with a 35-20 record and earned the program's 12th NCAA Regional bid.

The 35 wins were the second most by a first-year head coach in Washington history.

Six players from Kelly's inaugural squad were selected in the 2023 MLB Draft, marking the second time the Huskies had at least five players drafted since 2014. Kiefer Lord, taken 86th overall by the Baltimore Orioles, became the highest-drafted Husky since 2015. Case Matter (Texas Rangers), Stu Flesland III (Colorado Rockies), Johnny Tincher (Cleveland Guardians), Will Simpson (Oakland Athletics) and Coby Morales (New York Yankees) also heard their names called.

Kelly also managed nine All-Pac-12 honorees in the 2023 campaign.

Prior to joining the Huskies, Kelly served as the pitching coach at LSU in 2022 and held the same position at Arizona State the two seasons before.

During the 2022 campaign, he helped the Tigers to a 40-22 record and their 34th trip to the NCAA Tournament. Kelly's pitching staff totaled 610 strikeouts to only 220 walks in 554 innings, while holding opponents to a .240 average.

While working as an assistant alongside Texas A&M head coach Michael Earley at Arizona State, Kelly guided a pitching staff that helped the Sun Devils to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2021, despite losing all three weekend starters and closer. In the pandemic-shortened season in 2020, Kelly oversaw a pitching staff that recorded a 3.56 ERA compared to a 4.93 mark the season prior.

Before working at Arizona State, Kelly spent seven seasons as the pitching coach with Washington, where he was named the 2018 D1Baseball.com National Assistant Coach of the Year after helping the Huskies to their first College World Series appearance. During his tenure, he worked with 15 MLB Draft picks, developed the 2016 Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year in Troy Rallings and helped the program to a top-10 recruiting class in 2016.

Prior to arriving in Seattle, Kelly was the pitching coach at Cal Poly from 2007-12. In his first season in San Luis Obispo, he produced two pitchers who were selected in the top-five rounds of the draft, while his 2011 staff recorded the lowest ERA in the school's 17-year existence at the Division I level.

Kelly began his four-year college coaching career under Meggs at Chico State, where as the pitching coach he helped lead the Wildcats to back-to-back Division II College World Series berths. His 2005 Chico State staff compiled the sixth-best ERA in the nation.

Prior to coaching at Chico State, Kelly spent one season (2004) in baseball operations at Cal Poly and one season (2003) coaching at Cuesta College in San Luis Obispo, Calif. He also coached summer college teams from 2002-04, helping both the San Luis Obispo Blues and the Anchorage Bucs to the National Baseball Congress World Series.

Kelly was a pitcher at Cal Poly in 1999, and after redshirting in 2000, he went on to pitch at Cuesta College in 2001 and at Missouri Valley College in 2002. He is a 1998 graduate of St. Joseph High School in Santa Maria, Calif.

Kelly is married to his wife Tracy and together they have a daughter Peyton and son Cade.

CALEB LONGLEY

ASSISTANT COACH
EAST TENNESSEE STATE '18

1ST SEASON

Caleb Longley joined the Texas A&M baseball staff in the summer of 2024 as an assistant coach. With the Aggies, Longley will serve as the recruiting coordinator and hitting coach.

Prior to coming to Aggieland, Longley served three seasons in the same role at Texas where he helped the Longhorns to their three most productive offensive season in program history.

While on staff, Texas produced the three highest home run totals in school history. The Longhorns hit a program record 128 homers in 2022, then followed that up with 91 in 2023 and eclipsed the 100-homer mark again in 2024. The 2022 team had seven players with double-digit homer runs, including the national leader and Golden Spikes Award winner Ivan Melendez. Every regular starter on the 2023 team reached a new career-high in homers and five players reached double-digits.

In his first season as the recruiting coordinator in 2024, Longley pieced together a top-3 signing class according to Baseball America. Longley's 2025 class was also ranked No. 2 by Perfect Game.

During the 2024 season, Longley helped the Longhorns to the second-most homers in school annals with 112 and worked with the Big 12 Player of the Year in Max Belyeu. In 2023, the team returned only two everyday starters and 23 homers from the season prior and still batted .293 and average just over seven runs per game. Six Texas hitters garnered All-Big 12 honors under Longley's teachings in 2023.

In his first season on staff, Longley helped the Longhorns to a return to the College World Series and oversaw an offense that smashed a program record 128 homers. The best power hitting team in program history slugged .550 to smash the previous program record of .508 set in 1974.

During the season, Longley mentored Ivan Melendez, who became the first Texas player to win the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award and swept the national player of the year awards. Melendez hit a Longhorns record 32 home runs, surpassing Kyle Russell's Texas record 28 homers in 2007 and Kris Bryant's BBCOR era record of 31 homers in 2013. Melendez batted .387 and led the country with 94 RBI and an .863 slugging percentage.

Melendez was also one of seven Longhorn hitters to earn All-Big 12 honors in 2022.

Prior to his time in Austin, Longley spent two seasons with the Arizona State baseball program.

A former East Tennessee State standout and high-performance training coach, Longley helped train and develop several draft picks while at Arizona State including the 2020 No. 1 overall pick Spencer Torkelson and fellow first rounder Alika Williams.

Last season Longley helped the Sun Devils advance to the NCAA Regional and had a trio of freshmen All-Americans, including highly decorated DH/first baseman Ethan Long. Long was a consensus All-American after slugging 16 homers and slashing .340/.417/.704.

Longley is also the creator and CEO of MARV training - a unique multidimensional training tool focused on hitting and arm care routines that is used across numerous sports across the country, including MLB, NBA, NFL and numerous NCAA Division I sports (football, baseball, softball, volleyball).

Longley previously worked as a quarterback trainer where he trained several NFL and NCAA Power 5 quarterbacks, while being heavily involved in the draft preparation for First Round Pick Dwayne Haskins in 2019 and Jalen Hurts in 2020.

During his time working with quarterbacks, Longley developed custom arm care, arm strengthening and activation regimens used by NFL and NCAA quarterbacks. He developed the Quarterback Improvement Curriculum as well as Throwing Program used by numerous quarterbacks across the globe.

He was also the former owner and founder of the High Intent Training, a baseball player development center in Nashville, Tennessee. There he took a holistic approach to training and customizing development plans for each individual athlete. While at "HIT Nashville" Longley was one of the first people in the country to get certified and publish an article for OnBaseU.

Longley was an accomplished Division I baseball player at East Tennessee State, recording 43 career home runs. He slashed .310/.400/.655 with 14 homers, 20 doubles and 50 RBIs during his senior campaign and was named a First Team All-Southern Conference selection in the process. He finished his playing career professionally with the Bloomfield Beavers.

Longley and wife Demi, who played softball at East Tennessee State, were married in 2022.

6TH SEASON

Will Fox enters his sixth season on the staff and his first as an assistant coach as the Aggies embark on the 2024 campaign. Previously he spent the last three seasons as the director of video and analytics and his first two as director of player personnel and video coordinator.

The Maroon & White have had ample success during Fox's tenure in Aggieland, putting together a 179-92 record. Fox has also helped Texas A&M to three NCAA Tournament appearances and two trips to the College World Series.

In 2023, Fox assisted the Aggies in reaching new heights as the team compiled a 53-15 record and advanced to the College World Series Finals for the first time in program history. The squad's four wins in Omaha were the most in school annals, while the 53 victories are tied for the second most in Texas A&M history.

The Aggies followed a trip to Omaha in his inaugural season by pushing his squad to the title games of both the SEC Tournament and the Stanford Regional, finishing the year with a 38-27 mark.

After Fox's first campaign in the Brazos Valley in 2020, the Aggies had three players drafted in the first 50 picks for the first time in school annals. The Maroon & White were the only squad to have three players taken in the first selections of that season's MLB Draft with Asa Lacy (4th), Zach DeLoach (43rd) and Christian Roa (48th) all getting scooped up.

Fox arrived in Aggieland after two seasons on the coaching staff at his alma mater McNeese State University. He helped McNeese to a Southland Conference Tournament championship and a No. 3 seed in an NCAA Regional as a volunteer assistant coach in 2019, assisting with the pitching staff. In 2018, he served as a student assistant.

A two-year letter winner for McNeese, in 2017, Fox he helped the Cowboys win the Southland Conference championship for the first time in 11 years.

He played in 56 games for McNeese in 2017, hitting .291 with 35 runs, eight doubles, two triples, one home run and 26 RBI. In 2016, he hit .258 with five doubles, three triples and 21 RBI.

Fox started his collegiate playing career at TCU, appearing in seven games as a freshman in 2014. He played the 2015 campaign at McLennan Community College in Waco, Texas.

A native of Montgomery, Texas, Fox is married to Carolyn (Windham) and the couple has two daughters, Presley and Charlotte.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
TEXAS A&M '98

Jason Hutchins is in his 27th year as the Director of Operations for the Texas A&M baseball team as the Aggies embark on the 2024 campaign. Hutchins is responsible for organizing the day-to-day activities associated with the baseball program and is director of the Dugout Club. His baseball knowledge is a huge asset to the Aggie coaching staff.

Hutchins, who is serving under his third head coach in Aggieland, is vital in the administration and teaching aspects of the Texas A&M Baseball Camp, serving as the camp director for the last 20 seasons. Additionally, Hutchins keeps close ties with former players, who are a major part of Aggie Baseball family and are often invited back to the Brazos Valley for events such as the Former Players Weekend.

During his time on the staff, the Aggies have experience consistent success, including five College World Series trips, 20 NCAA Tournament appearances and seven conference titles.

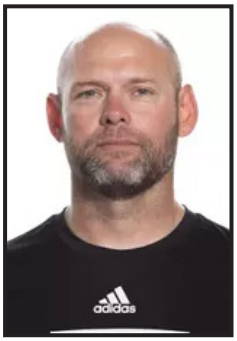
"Hutch", a native of Irvine, Calif., was a pitcher on the 1991 and 1992 Aggie baseball squads, both of which advanced to the NCAA regional tournament. In 1991, he made 13 appearances and started 11 games for the Aggies. He finished the season with a 4-3 record and tallied 56 strikeouts in 54.2 innings. He is believed to hold the single-season record for hit batters with 10 during the 1991 season.

In 1992, Hutchins saw action in 12 games, all out of the bullpen, registering a 2.11 ERA and fanning 18 hitters in 17.1 innings.

Hutchins played professional baseball in the Colorado Rockies organization with stints in Bend, Central Valley and New Haven. He also spent a season in the Arizona Fall League and the Hawaiian Winter League. In 1992, he was selected as the top prospect in the Northwest League after logging 18 saves and a 2.59 ERA in 41.2 innings for the Bend Rockies. An arm injury forced Hutchins to retire in 1996.

After retirement, Hutchins returned to Texas A&M and earned a degree in sport management in 1998. While finishing his degree, he assisted the A&M coaching staff in various capacities.

Hutchins is married to the former Alicia Frank (A&M Class of 1993). The couple has a son, Jace Ryan, and a daughter, Halle Grace, who both attend Texas A&M.



JEREMY MCMILLAN

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
TEXAS TECH '06
1ST SEASON

Jeremy McMillan enters his 14th season on the staff as the Aggies embark on the 2025 campaign. His responsibility at A&M is to build a strength and conditioning program that addresses the specific characteristics of the game of baseball. McMillan's program focuses on a combination of both strength and power development with an emphasis on developing explosive strength, power and rotational ability.

His appointment gives Texas A&M the unique distinction as one of the few schools in the country with a full-time baseball strength & conditioning coach. McMillan supervises and maintains all activities of the new weight room facility in the renovated Olsen Field at Blue Bell Park. Additionally, he oversees the nutritional and hydration efforts for Aggie baseball.

McMillan's efforts have helped players advance in their baseball careers. While at Texas A&M, McMillan has mentored 10 Major Leaguers, including Ryan Hendrix, Corbin Martin, Kyle Martin, Daniel Mengden, A.J. Minter, Tyler Naquin, Ross Stripling, Michael Wacha, Bryce Miller and Braden Shewmake. He helped develop 13 players who were selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft, the most in school history. At least three player have been drafted in every year of his tenure and he boasts 16 pitchers selected in the first five rounds of the draft since 2016, the most of any Texas school.

While in Aggieland, Texas A&M has made two trips to the College World Series, including the 2017 and 2022 seasons.

The San Antonio, Texas, native arrived in Aggieland after his most recent post with the St. Louis Rams of the National Football League where he served as assistant strength and conditioning coach/nutrition consultant.

In his most recent position at the collegiate level, McMillan worked from 2007 to the summer of 2011 as strength and conditioning coach at Texas State where he served with the baseball, soccer, women's basketball, golf and women's tennis programs.

During his time at Texas State, McMillan played an important role with Bobcat baseball as the program captured three consecutive Southland Conference regular season championships and an SLC Tournament title while advancing to the NCAA Tournament on two occasions.

McMillan also spent time at the University of New Mexico where he served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach working with the Lobo baseball, football, swimming and diving, track (sprinters and jumpers), women's golf and Nordic skiing teams.

Prior to New Mexico, McMillan served as a student assistant at Texas Tech University for a period of three years while working on his undergraduate degree. While at Texas Tech, McMillan worked with baseball, softball, basketball, soccer, volleyball, and the women's tennis programs.

A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, McMillan is CPR certified as well as being first aid certified through the American Red Cross. He is a graduate of Texas Tech, where he received his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science in August of 2006. He is currently working on finishing his master's degree that he started at New Mexico.

McMillan is married Jackie Barrett (Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2010) and they have a daughter, Ellie, and a son, Callen.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS
TEXAS TECH '17
2ND SEASON

Kyle Stafford, a member of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, joined the athletics department in December of 2023 as Associate Director of Athletic Communications for Texas A&M baseball and equestrian. Stafford will also assist with the communication efforts for Aggie football.

In his career, Stafford has covered six regular season championships, five conference tournament championships, two national championships and two College World Series runs. Throughout his six seasons, Stafford has helped elevate the brands of 33 All-Americans, three National Coaches of the Year and two NCBWA Stoppers of the Year.

Prior to coming to Aggieland, Stafford served as the Director of Athletic Communications at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Oklahoma. During his time at ORU, Stafford was the primary contact for baseball, women's basketball, volleyball, cross country and track and field. He also assisted with producing creative content for social media through photography, videography and graphic design.

In 2023, Stafford led the social media and promotional efforts of the Golden Eagles' historic run to the College World Series. Throughout the run, Stafford successfully promoted the brands of the program's first two consensus All-Americans in Cade Denton, who was also named the NCBWA Stopper of the Year, and Jonah Cox.

Prior to joining ORU, Stafford served as the Assistant Sports Information Director at Keiser University. At Keiser, Stafford helped oversee the coverage and promotion of 26 sports, while serving as the primary contact for football, men's and women's golf, flag football and women's lacrosse. Stafford also handled all video content for the department while assisting with graphic design.

In addition to his experience at Keiser, Stafford served as the Sports Information Assistant at Milligan University from August 2018 to February 2019.

A native of Navasota, Texas, Stafford obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Management from Texas Tech University in 2017.
